Rep. O'Connell has held the Ninth Ward for the last four years, and is his candidate for reelection was the fact that Judge O'Connell is well known and liked.

Judge O'Connell is a gifted musician who has been playing viola in the Rochester Symphony Orchestra. He is a respected figure in the city and is well liked by all. He has always been a strong supporter of the Republican Party and has been an active member of the Third Ward Republican Club.

The next meeting of the Club will be held on Tuesday, November 22, at 8:00 p.m. in the Third Ward Republican Club House, located at 123 South Avenue. All members are invited to attend and participate in the discussions.

If you are interested in learning more about the Club or want to become a member, please contact Mr. O'Connell or any of the other members at the meeting. We look forward to seeing you there!
