Revival of KKK Draws Sharp Attacks

ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK ASSAILLS KLAN AS BIGOTED

A sharp attack on the recent meeting of the Ku Klux Klan was made by Attorney General Thomas Dudley Clark in his address to the American Bar Association at the recent convention of the National Conference on Social Reconstruction in Chicago. Mr. Clark, speaking before the Illinois State Bar Association, praised the Negro citizens of the United States for their courage in the face of efforts to create a racial atmosphere of hatred and violence.

"The American people are watching," Mr. Clark said, "and realize that the present situation is not the result of the past, but is the outcome of recent years. I have no doubt that the efforts of the Klan will be met with strong opposition from the Negro citizens of the United States."

Mr. Clark further stated that the Supreme Court has made it clear that the Klan will not be able to operate as it wishes. He added that the Klan's attempt to create a racial atmosphere of hatred and violence is not only an attack on the Negro, but also on the American people as a whole.

Mr. Clark concluded his address by saying that the American people are determined to stand up to any efforts to create a racial atmosphere of hatred and violence, and that the efforts of the Klan will be met with strong opposition from the Negro citizens of the United States.

CRAMTON'S CORNER

IT'S A SHAME—there's a guy that shoots the blood out of a man's body, especially when he has nothing to do with it as well.

How about that? A Mr. Craclehead with a cola back side and his fine sideshooting—why he's the man he's all right. Which is definitely charming with fast praise, as far as your friend, Lord Cramton.

Yes, what I'll give to the man. Let it be known here, it'll shut me up just what does it mean to be a man or a woman against a twenties company?

Far from his personal endeavor is the man a gentleman, so far and he may kick through someday with his band.

Survey Shows Negro Voters Back Dewey and Wallace Nominations

ORLANDO — Henry Wallace and Thomas J. Dewey are the favorite to be President and Vice President, respectively, in the November election, according to a vote taken among Negroes in Florida.

There was no movement for minor Negro candidates in the recent election, indicating that Negroes cast their votes en bloc.

There was no movement for any Negro candidate in the recent election, indicating that Negroes cast their votes en bloc.

Survey of Negroes in the State showed that 90 per cent of Negroes vote for Dewey and Wallace.

The survey was conducted by the Florida Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which organized a campaign to get Negroes to the polls.

ANOTHER BASEBALL FIRST

When the Newark, New Hampshire, baseball team defeated the Pawtucket, Rhode Island, nine last week by a score of 1-0, it made baseball history.

Father Donald McVie of the Naugatuck, Connecticut, became the first Negro to pitch a shutout in organized baseball. He also became the first Negro to pitch the regulation nine innings in organized baseball. In addition he was the first of the All-American Ball Club, along with John Camporeale, to participate in an organized baseball contest.

In winning his first assignment, by a score of 3 to 0, McVie pitched two games of three innings each for the Negro team, a fast ball, and a good change of pace.

The Pawtucket team are members of the New England League, which is functioning after a lapse of 16 years.

On Sunday, May 19, 1946, the Rochester Voice published an editorial titled "The Rochester Voice: A Voice for Peace." The editorial praised the Rochester Peace Committee for its work in promoting non-violent solutions to conflicts. The Rochester Voice was a weekly newspaper edited by J. B. Hudnut and published in Rochester, New York. It was known for its coverage of local news and events, as well as its commitment to social justice and civil rights.

The editorial concludes by urging readers to join the Rochester Peace Committee in its efforts to promote peace and non-violence. The Rochester Voice supported the committee's work, and the school year is divided into two semesters, starting in September and ending in June. The newspaper is printed in Rochester, NY, and distributed to the local community.
