In the First Epistle to the Co- lossians, the apostle Paul speaks of a "one faith," but as a warning against forms of godliness which are mere outward show, he says, "If you have not that 'knowledge which is of the form of the doctrine of the truth,' you have put yourself at the mercy of superstition."

In the Second Epistle to the Thessalonians, the apostle Paul speaks of the "knowledge" which is "of the truth" as a "knowledge of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ," and he says, "If you have not that 'knowledge which is of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,' you have put yourself at the mercy of fanaticism."

In the Third Epistle to the Timothy, the apostle Paul speaks of the "knowledge" which is "of the truth" as a "knowledge of the gentleness and knowledge of God," and he says, "If you have not that 'knowledge which is of the gentleness and knowledge of God,' you have put yourself at the mercy of unrighteousness."

SPORT POURRI... By Al Jones

GATLIFF GOES.. at last it was my turn to play piano. I have been playing for many years, but this was the first time I had been able to do so in public. I was very nervous, but very happy as well. The audience seemed to enjoy my music, and I was proud to have been able to share my talent with them.

BELL, LaMotta Fight For Shot At Zale's Title

The full纯净 of top-flight brawling was never more evident than in the Zale's incredible second round bout, which was previewed in yesterday's edition of the Chicago Sun.

It's a natural fight between LaMotta and Sharkey. The former is the most powerful puncher in the middleweight division, while the latter is the best counterpuncher. Both men are equally matched, and the fight should be memorable.
