Always feel refreshed after chat with Trayser Van Beren "Kid" Alberts, because he leaves to comfortable and doesn't get so grandiose and stuffy as he seems. As a matter of fact, the former middleweight champion is one of the most pleasing personalities in the ring.

Play by play on the radio will be altered in the near future, according to Kid Alberts. He will be doing more play by play, and less of the traditional "on-the-spot" type of commentary.

The week's events seem to be settling down to a steady routine, according to Kid Alberts. The boxing world is beginning to get back to normal after the recent flurry of activity.
