OPERATION GRASSROOTS
Organizing the Unorganized...to Meet the Demands & Needs of the Needy -- This is our record of service to the public since its founding in February 1889.
We were formerly located at 16 State Street, we have recently opened our new headquarters at 667-569 Plymouth Ave. S. We are continuing to operate OPERATION GRASSROOTS. INFORMATION AND COORDINATING CENTER AND THE FREDERICK DOUGLASS OPPORTUNITY SHOP at this address.

"OPERATION GRASSROOTS"...A Master Plan and Pilot project started the ball rolling in securing hundreds of jobs for the black men and women in the downtown area and in local factories.Introduced the study of Negro History in our schools, set up apprenticeship programs, established reading and writing classes for those who could not read and write, carried the fight for black men and women to have the right to enter the U. of R. Medical School. Recently this organization has established the John F. Kennedy Scholarship Fund for the worthy young men and women of the Black Race, clean block campaigns, etc.

At this joyous season, we extend to you our best wishes for the holidays.
May the New Year bring to all of us that cherished dream of "Peace On Earth."

School segregation throughout the U.S., prejudice as a social phenomenon, political and socio-economic pressures and prejudices maintaining segregation, types of segregated schools, anti-segregation court action, Nothing New! Brown vs. Board of Education, 1954, factors influencing Brown vs. Board Case, What has been done to implement the '54 decision? New York, California, call for elimination of racially homogeneous schools, and pressures for desegregation of schools.

Mrs. McDowell is an authority on the above subjects. She was recently appointed regional Director of all NAACP branches in New York State.

A Clear Conscience on Color

"An equal chance for jobs, housing and the use of public places is essentially a moral right grounded in spiritual and religious values. In New York State, these rights are defined as civil rights and are protected by constitutional and statutory law and executive policies, codes and practices. It is my determination that in New York State, these human and civil rights shall be of primary concern."

Nelson A. Rockefeller, Governor

"As Governor Rockefeller has so forcefully stated, New York State is deeply committed to the protection of civil rights of all of its people. If you encounter discrimination because of race, creed, color or national origin, bring your complaint or problem to any of the offices of the State Commission for Human Rights. Its regulatory, educational and other resources, as well as its personnel, will be available in connection with any problem you meet."

George H. Fowler, Chairman
State Commission for Human Rights

Who speaks for Tommy?

He sits alone in a hostile world... looking to you for help... asking the questions that you must be ready to answer.

Who am I? Where am I from? What will I be?

He needs proof that he is somebody. He needs the pride in his past and his heritage that only the truth can give him.

The Negro Heritage Library unlocks the door to that past... and fills in the missing pages of a glorious heritage. Here are the true giants... the men and women... the struggles and victories... the amazing, long-hidden story of the Negro's contributions to history and culture. Who speaks for Tommy? The answer is here... in the Negro Heritage Library.

The Negro Heritage Library

A MUST FOR EVERY FAMILY!

What they're saying about The Negro Heritage Library:

"The idea of the Negro Heritage Library is a tremendous one. I can think of no venture in the world of ideas that is going to be more critical to the Negro community. In a real sense it is the next frontier in our struggle."

"The Negro Heritage Library will make readily available, to both Negro and White readers, the facts needed to set the record straight. It should be a continuing source of enlightenment and inspiration to people."

ROY WILKINS, Executive Director N.A.A.C.P.

"...will close the knowledge-gap about the Negro and satisfy a long-felt social need."

SAUNDERS REDDING, Teaching Fellow, Duke Univ.

"I am pleased to know of the development of the Negro Heritage Library. It is eminently important that the Negro direct his attention to the realm of ideas, the book, and the mind, for it is here alone that he will find the creative resources to consolidate gains of the Civil Rights Revolution."

A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, President International Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters

"...too little is known about the Negro heritage in the United States—especially about the history of the Negro in this country..."

"Recognizing the need for developing the presentation of the history of the Negro as an integral part of the whole history of the United States, a new publishing firm, Educational Heritage, Inc., has taken steps to broaden the whole concept of heritage studies..."

Honors for ‘Heroic Action’

Winners of Rochester Safety Council “awards for heroic action” are (from left) William Robinson, 12 Syracuse St.; John Pizzutto and James Metcalf, Youngstown, Ohio. They were honored for their roles in rescuing on Sept. 28 a fellow-worker, Richard Peters, who was pinned by falling steel beams high up in the RKO Palace Theater building they were demolishing. Robert H. McCarthy, Safety Council president, yesterday gave them certificates on the job site.

When you open your Christmas gift check book, you will find a large variety of Sea Food — Fresh and direct from the fishing grounds — Florida, Arkansas, Tennessee, Canada. A large variety of shells, codfish, red snappers, pogues, buffalo, speckled perch, king fish, mackerel, hard shell crabs, sunfish, saltwater mollys, butterfish, flounders, rock bass, sheep heads, oysters, clams, etc. A specialty — Fresh Fried Fish Daily.
THE WHITE MAN'S GUILT—James Baldwin has written, for this Special Issue of EBONY, some of the most chilling words, searing and searching words, and some of the most noble and inspiring words ever put on paper. Negros and whites who read them will know the truth. And whites who read them earnestly will find purgative medicines for the soul.

THE WHITE LIBERAL: MAN OF POWER AND GUILT, FEAR AND PROMISE—The brilliant Louis Lomax suggests that the white liberal is the new power elite. If he can correct this society's racial and economic flaws without basically altering our existing institutions, says Lomax, then he is mankind's fondest hope. Be sure to read this keen probe into what makes the white liberal tick and how he relates to the far right and far left today.

THE UNCHRISTIAN CHRISTIAN—Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., finds the church deficient in both the practice and the preaching of Christianity. There is hope in recent church commitments to civil rights. But the key issue, Doctor King says, must be resolved in local congregations, for the church in general is the most segregated major institution in American society, an institution ostensibly dedicated to brotherhood.

THE AMERICAN WHITE; THE VIEW OF A NEGRO SOCIAL SCIENTIST—Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, Professor of Psychology and Director, Social Dynamics Research Institute, City College of New York, takes you deep into the psyche of the American majority. "...the more desperately one seeks status for himself, the more pathetically he seeks to deny it to others," says Doctor Clark. Those who do so "reflect profound and deep levels of personal anxiety concerning causal adequacy."

POVERTY IN AMERICA—With the eloquence of logic, Alex Poinsett shows how the poverty problem for 35,000,000 people of all colors is galloping toward a major crisis unless massive remedies are taken. Poverty is also a problem for the 80% who are not poor. If they do not enlist in the war on poverty, says Poinsett, then it will move no more than the heroic, frozen postures of statuary in the nation's parks.
Wyatt Tee Walker, Vice-President in charge of Marketing and Services since July 15, 1964 and former chief of staff to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., has been named president of Educational Heritage, Inc.

Shortly after his appointment, Mr. Walker said: "I feel the weight of this awesome responsibility. As in my other careers, however, I look to the presidency as a stimulating challenge, and feel, with the help of everyone, I can continue to make this a great success."

He indicated further that "80% of the company's operation will be franchise, with the parent company functioning primarily as a service organization to the franchises. We are expecting momentarily to open franchises in Georgia, Virginia and Louisiana. This is an index of the new character of the company."

Wyatt Tee Walker first joined the company on a "lend-lease" arrangement worked out with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the civil rights organization headed by Dr. King.

A native of Brockton, Massachusetts, Mr. Walker was educated in the public schools of Merchantville, New Jersey and, in 1950, graduated from Virginia Union University with a B.S. degree, and magna cum laude honors. Three years later, he earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the same institution, this time summa cum laude.

Mr. Walker joined SCLC in 1960 during the organization's infancy. Within a mere three-year span, he was instrumental in helping SCLC become one of the nation's most effective, efficient and stable advocates of the philosophy of nonviolence. As executive director under Dr. King, he had primary responsibility for coordinating SCLC's activities on such major battlegrounds of the civil rights revolutions as Albany, Georgia and Birmingham, Alabama.

Both he and his wife, the former Theresa Edwards of Washington, D.C., were brutalized during the Birmingham violence.

Since then, Mr. Walker's renowned pulpit oratory and his frequent appearances on nationwide television have stamped him as one of the leading civil rights personalities in the United States.

After joining Educational Heritage, Mr. Walker also became pulpit minister at Harlem's Abyssinian Baptist Church, the largest Protestant congregation in the world. He was formerly pastor of the 1,000-member Gillfield Baptist Church in historic Petersburg, Virginia.

Upon first joining the company, Mr. Walker coined a phrase — "cultural blackout" — to describe the premeditated exclusion from the school texts of the Negro's significant contribution to American culture. The determination to eliminate this "cultural blackout" has since become the rallying point for Negro Heritage Library.

THE VOICE ANSWERS THE REV. PAUL R. LONG

The Times Union carried a Special Feature recently with reference to FRIENDS OF FIGHT.

The Rev. Paul R. Long cited a story concerning a Selma, Ala., demonstration last January which he said should have been given greater prominence in news display. He said that he is concerned about the limited outlet of opinions and news in the community.

We too are more concerned about certain "Lukewarm Liberals" and the Uncle Toms in our community. We believe the Rev. Mr. Long should explain to the Rochester community why it is possible to march with Civil Rightsers in Alabama and deny Justice and Cooperation to a Black World War Veteran by the name of J. Miller in securing the rental of the War Memorial auditorium for Group Singing of the Negro Spiritual.

Rev. Mr. Long and his group have agreed to ask Democratic County Chairman and Irondequoit Supervisor Harold L. Knauf, who is challenging the chairmanship, to state their views publicly on Seventh Ward Democratic Leader Sam Salone.

Sam Salone is not without honor in the Black Community and throughout the city because his name is legion. He has been instrumental in placing Black Men and Women in some 250 jobs, positions, etc. We must remind Rev. Long that when he can bring about this kind of cooperation he too will have a tremendous following. The Uncle toms who read the resolution at the Fight Convention on June 11, 1965 are at the present enjoying the fruits of Mr. Salone's labor in their behalf and who now would like to forget it. The VOICE Newspaper also contributed to the welfare of this Uncle Tom, before they changed their registration from Republican to Democrat. Yes, let's be fair, let's tell the truth about Sam Salone. No, he's not perfect, but he is a Fighter and a Man and he didn't just start working in behalf of the Black Men and Women.

A recent article about Sam Salone indicates his stature in the community because of some of his accomplishments: Sam Salone, leader of the 7th ward, deserves your support, colored and white Americans, because he has always stood for these things and has always had a special feeling for the poor man; to wit - first Negro deputy sheriff, first Negro election inspector, first Negro truck drivers for DPW, first Negro postal workers, Negro foremen on DPW works projects, first Negro postal workers, Negro foremen on DPW works projects, first Negro postal workers, Negro foremen on DPW works projects, first Negro postal workers, Negro foremen on DPW works projects, first Negro postal workers, Negro foremen on DPW works projects.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

H.R. 7959—Frederick Douglass Stamp

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

HON. FRANK J. HORTON

OF NEW YORK

In the House of Representatives, September 10, 1963

Mr. HORTON. Mr. Speaker, recently I introduced H.R. 7959, to provide for the issuance of a special postage stamp honoring Frederick Douglass. At the time of its introduction I pointed out my special interest in such a commemorative stamp because of the significant role which Frederick Douglass played in the struggle for Negro freedom and progress. Since that time I have received a number of letters from Negro citizens, from citizens throughout the Nation, expressing their desire that we do establish this commemorative stamp.

It was my firm and fervent belief that in the United States we can, in the true spirit of democracy, honor the Negro who fought for the abolition of slavery, the Negro who, like Frederick Douglass, fought for a more perfect democracy. I have been heartened by the fact that a number of Negro citizens from throughout the nation have requested that we adopt this commemorative stamp honoring Frederick Douglass.

As I pointed out in my statement when I introduced H.R. 7959, I do not believe that we should adopt this commemorative stamp in place of the newly adopted Civil Rights Act. I do not favor a kind of idle boast. Actually, it is a factual statement attesting to the fact that the time for boasting is over. None of the Negro citizens of this country has ever fought for the abolition of slavery, the Negro has fought for a more perfect democracy, and the Negro is a participant in the life of our Nation.

I wish to urge the Congress to adopt H.R. 7959, to honor Frederick Douglass, for it is our firm and fervent belief that in the true spirit of democracy we can and should honor the Negro who fought for the abolition of slavery.

Mr. Speaker, if you would like to take part in this project, please let me know, and tell me how many sets of publications you need. Additional quantities will be sent you whenever you need them.

Thank you for your interest and cooperation. I look forward to hearing from you.

With best wishes of the Holiday Season and kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

FRANK HORTON
