2 PUBLIC DEFENDER ASSISTANTS NAMED

Truman E. Coles and Stephen C. Rench were named assistant public defenders Monday by Mayor Curri- gan and Public Defender Edward R. Sherman.

Coles, 41, will receive $12,000 a year and went on the city payroll Monday. Rench, 35, will receive $11,004 a year and will start Tuesday.

Sherman said he hopes to name his deputy public defender later this week.

His staff also will include two more assistant defenders, two investigaters and at least four clerical employees. The new city agency which became operative Jan. 1, is responsible for furnishing legal counsel to indigent defendants charged in any Denver court.

Coles was born Nov. 22, 1924, in Rochester, New York. He received a bachelor's degree from Morgan State College in Baltimore in 1950 and his law degree from Boston Univer- sity in 1953.

Coles served as an assistant district attorney in Rochester from 1956-61 and has practised law in Colorado since April 1961. He is married, has four children and lives at 3536 Tejon St.

Rench was born Oct. 11, 1930, in Coffeyville, Kan. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas in 1952 and his law degree from Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., in 1959. He was in private practice for nearly three years and served as law clerk for both U.S. Dist. Judge Alfred Arraj and the late U.S. Dist. Judge William Lee Knox.

Since 1963 Rench has served as clerk (chief administrative officer of Probate Judge David Brombman's court. Rench is not married and lives at 1420 Logan St.

SHORT and SWEET

The man of tomorrow will have no hair at all, according to a Brown University biologist... Man is the least hairy of all mammals and is getting more hairless with time... Bald men are the wave of the future... During the reign of Julius Caesar, war cost 75 cents for every killed enemy... In the Civil War, the expense was $5,000 a man... In the First World War it was $50,000... In the Second World War it soared to more than $25,000 for each casualty.

Your gas and electric service bill is made up of dozens of values like this! Each month your gas and electric serv- ants cook ninety meals for the family table and make water hot to wash the dishes. Also, with their help, rugs and floors are vacuumed clean... shirts and trousers neatly pressed... and nights made light... all month long.
How to face February with a smile:

Face January with money. Enough to give you a jaunty air when you walk down to the mailbox. Enough to give you the indescribable pleasure that comes from paying off all those Christmas bills in one clean sweep.

Get it from us. We understand. We know that holiday generosity can very often outstretch holiday budgets. That's why our loans are as free of red tape as you'll find anywhere.
