Mumford Second Baptist Church Observes 90 Years of Progress

IN THE BEGINNING:
I talk to God — "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen."

For centuries past, every nation and race of recognized ability and merit included in the world’s history, has taken pride in revery to some outstanding feature of its existence: pointing with pride to some particular event, type of culture or accomplishment which in turn has made this people known to the world and added to its national glory and life.

The American Negro in this area is no exception in this matter, for he can point with great pride and esteem to the life and character of the humble servant of Stonewall Jackson, the Reverend Clayton A. Coles.

Clayton A. Coles was a product of the slave system and the trials, tribulations and vicissitudes suffered by this humble servant were written on his back by the slave-driver’s lash. Like many slaves, he was denied the right of knowing his origin; just who his parents were.

But his faith matured. He stood in good stead and somehow he knew that he perhaps saw the light, the end of the darkness and the tribulations and vicissitudes suffered by this humble servant were written on his back by the slave-driver’s lash.

It was during this period that he stood beside his master. He bore the brunt of the hardships and vicissitudes endured by this humble servant. He bore the brunt of the hardships and vicissitudes endured by this humble servant.

His faith was confirmed when he was denied the right of knowledge of his existence. He was a child of God and knew that he was one of the chosen of the Father. He knew that he was chosen by the Father to be a part of that tradition of faith.

When the Civil War ended, as a part of the community, he became a part of that tradition of faith. He became a part of that tradition of faith. He became a part of that tradition of faith. He became a part of that tradition of faith.

On Friday, November 6th a banquet will be held with Rev. Kelly Miller Smith, pastor of First Baptist Church, Nashville, Tennessee as the keynote speaker. (Tickets to this event are $10.00 per person). A musical will take place on Saturday evening, November 7th and Rev. Luther Fielder, pastor of Faith Bethany United Methodist Church, Detroit, Mich. will bring the message at 11:00 A.M., on Sunday, November 8th.

Mr. Dear Mrs. Lucas:

Time has been of essence with reference to the compiling of this material in an accurate and forthright manner, in trying to convey with your guidance, I am also enclosing a photo of my grandparents, taken from my forthcoming book entitled, “The Negro Keyd in Rochersey,” which you are free to produce if you wish, in your forthcoming publication. All I ask is that courtesy credit be given in your publication for the foregoing brief history of the founding of the church.

Sincerely yours,

Howard W. Coles

P.S. I am enclosing a photo of the descendant of the Mumford Second Baptist Church which still stands along the Belcoda Road. In 1981, he founded the Belcoda Baptist Church of Mumford, New York. This church was incorporated in August of 1886, the name was later changed to the Mumford Second Baptist Church. At that time, he lived in a little house near the Belcoda Cemetery that he tended for a quarter of a century where he rests today beside his wife Ellen.

Along with Rev. Cole, the early founders of the church were Rev. J.W. Jeffries of Long Island; John Gorden who served as Clerk; Edward Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clark and Lucy Gordon.

Under membership, certificates were received by personal experience, 9 under Watch Care and 1 by Baptism. The certificate of incorporation, dated the 17th of August, 1886 includes the following brethren Clayton A. Coles, Jarvis Frazer, Henry Holmes and Henry Johnson.

By way of affiliation, we have the following letter dated July 7, 1902. From the Rev. W. J. Reid, pastor of the University Avenue Baptist Church in Rochester, New York. It states: "Dear Brother Coles: I found these papers in my desk as I was cleaning up and thought they might be of interest enough for you to preserve them. I think they were given to me some time ago by Mr. Rebhard. Hope you are prospering. Yours sincerely, J. Reid."

It is well worthy of note that despite the vicissitudes and metamorphysis of time, the Mumford Second Baptist Church has had a continued record of service; the first Black church founded in this area was the A.M.E. Zion Church (still in existence) located on Faver Street in Rochester, N.Y. As a granddau of the founder of the Mumford Second Baptist Church, we realize the delicacy of the subject especially when we think of giving credit where credit is due for the yeoman service that was performed by these early pioneers. Suffice it to say, that space and time do not permit the naming of all those who have made a lasting contribution to the religious and social structure of the area. Here are only a few: the Charles B. Cole Family, Minors; Minor Poles, John Martin, Horace Blackburn. It is significant of the role played by Mumford Second Baptist Church that several of its pastors have been among the nation’s leading religious and political figures.
Since my last column I have been to Washington, D.C. and Chicago, Ill. I attended the National Tenants Conference. My name, Jessie Gray of New York City, was held at the Howard Hotel, 1101 17th St., N.W. from the 8th thru the 11th. There was not a minister who made the conference be called to order, so me, being an ordained minister, opened the session with a short prayer. To my pleasure I shared Queen Mother Moore's Suite. We talked about old times and what we together could help to change the future for our youth. We were not represented in the conference, but eloquently this came from Syracuse, New York City, Chicago, Ill., New Orleans, La., Mobile, Ala., Gary, Ind., Detroit, Mich., Cleveland, Ohio, and Washington, D.C., Atlanta, Ga., Durham, N.C., and N.Y. N.J.

A testimonial dinner was held in honor of Jesse Gray. Speakers were founder of N.T.O. Jim Hayes of New Orleans, Queen Mother Moore of NYC., and Lawrence Landry of D.C. Mr. Gray's son, S.Barry, Jr., brought greetings to the conference and welcomed this national group to the nation's capital. I was very impressed with the tenant leadership given by Kimi Gray, N.T.O. Chairman.

In October, 1978, Mr. Gray served as the Vice-Chairman on the Committee of the National Tenants Organization. In June, 1953, as leader of the Harlem Tenants Union Council, Mr. Gray fought and achieved rent control regulations for Harlem. Another victory in 1953, giving due process rights to evicted rooming house residents, swelled Mr. Gray's reputation as an effective leader in the housing movement.

In 1968, Mr. Gray began his participation in rent strike activities. A resident of the tenants organization, in that housing project, I asked her to assist me in obtaining housing for my cousins who live there in D.C. and she called me long distance since I returned home. People in public housing need strong tenants participation. Jessie Gray came here following the riots of 1964 and tried to organize the tenants in public housing. Here is a short sketch regarding Jessie who is the national tenants chairman.

JESSE GRAY
N.T.O. Chairman
Jessie Gray, National Chairman of the National Tenants Organization, is nationally known for his long involvement with the country's housing problems. His reputation as an organizer and leader has grown from over 20 years of participation in the housing struggle in New York City.

Involvement in housing began at the "gut level" for Mr. Gray. Initially, Mr. Gray led a battle against Urban Renewal in New York. His four year effort won a 10-year moratorium on all demolition in Harlem, in 1954. 35th District to Receive EPA Funds For Wastewater Treatment Projects

Washington — More than $13 million for wastewater treatment projects was approved by the Environmental Protection Agency for communities in the 35th Congressional District in the closing days of the 1981 fiscal year, Congressman Barber B. Conable and Senator Alphonse M. D'Amato have announced. The fiscal year closed September 30.

The largest grant, $3.2 million, was approved for the Village of Attica to help finance the design and construction of an advanced wastewater treatment facility and interceptor sewer and rehabilitation of an existing system.

A grant of $2.4 million was authorized to the Town of Castile for the Silver Lake Sewer project to plan and construct conveyance and treatment facilities.

Under terms of the Clean Water Act the Environmental Protection Agency makes grants to communities for 75 per cent of the cost of planning and constructing wastewater treatment facilities. The remaining cost is borne by state and local governments.

Other grants were the following:

- Village of LeRoy, $820,798 for construction of a treatment plant.
- Rochester Pure Waters District, $720,000 for planning modifications; South Central Sewer District, $700,000 for Lehigh Valley Interceptor in Henrietta; Town of Henrietta, $675,000 for construction of relief sewer and rehabilitation of existing system; Town of York, $381,250 for plans and construction of a treatment plant; Village of Arcade, $279,750 for facilities planning; Village of Dansville, $33,288 for planning sludge disposal; and Village of Avon, $20,356 for study and planning.

To the People of the United States:

With sadness, I announce the death of Roy Wilkins who died today in New York City.

Roy Wilkins worked for equality, spoke for freedom, and marched for justice. His quiet and unassuming manner masked his tremendous passion for civil and human rights.

He once said, "The heritage of a man of peace will endure and shine into the darkness of this world." Although Roy Wilkins' death darkens our day, the accomplishments of his life will continue to endure and shine forth.

As a mark of respect for the memory of Roy Wilkins, I hereby order that the flag of the United States shall be flown at half-staff upon all public buildings and grounds, at all military posts and naval stations, and on all naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its Territories and possessions until his interment. I also direct that the flag shall be flown at half-staff for the same length of time at all United States embassies, legations, consular offices, and other facilities abroad, including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

The annual observance of the Great American Smokeout focuses public attention on cigarette smokers from coast to coast. It's their day! The Smokeout is an up-beat, good-natured effort to encourage smokers to give up cigarettes for 24 hours, if only to prove to themselves that they can. Everyone enjoys watching and rooting while they try.

Larry Hagman is 1981 Chairman of the Great American Smokeout. According to Larry, his "nice, sweet disposition" is because he gave up cigarettes. Larry is a cold turkey-quitter, claims that, "one day I just threw them away!" His enthusiasm for the no-smoking campaign promises to be contagious.

Larry is the guest editor of this week's "Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents." The President's statement of September 8, 1981, concerning the death of Roy Wilkins, is reprinted in the "Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents" (vol. 17, no. 37).

It may surprise you, but the nation's 100-year-old Red Cross story actually began with two upstate New York chapters. The first was founded by Clara Barton in Dansville, her "country home" for more than a decade. Chapter No. 2 was started in Rochester just two months later by Miss Barton and her close friend, Susan B. Anthony. Within days, a Rochesterian went to Michigan to assist the victims of a devastating forest fire. That was America's first Red Cross field action.

Kodak, which just last year celebrated its own centennial, has assisted the Red Cross from the very beginning. And, the commitment has always been more than purely financial; thousands of Kodak people have volunteered their time and talents, too.

The Kodak/Red Cross connection even included cooperation at the highest level. Our founder, George Eastman, serving as director of the Rochester chapter during World War I, helped raise funds for a 9,000-bed Army hospital in France and coordinated the efforts of thousands of local volunteers.

Today the Red Cross touches the lives of almost everyone. It has helped untold millions through a century of natural disasters. And, through its voluntary donor program, it supplies 50% of the blood used nationwide. That's a Red Cross service which originated right here in Rochester in 1948.

For many the Red Cross means valuable courses in first aid, water safety and preventive health care. To Kodak, the Red Cross is living proof that donations and volunteerism can make the community a better place.

But there's so much more to do. And that's where the local supporting cast still comes in.
