REMARIES IN 25TH ANNIVERSARY CEREMONY AS A RENEWAL OF FAITH IN EACH OTHER

Members of two long-time Rochester families gathered recently from all over the United States to share the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Langston Paige Kelso and Alyce Majors Kelso, who were married in the Mumford Second Baptist Church on May 16, 1959.

On May 19, 1954, Mr. and Mrs. Langston Kelso renewed their wedding vows at a garden ceremony at the Thurston Bank home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kelso. The vows were exchanged before the Reverend Charles Thurman, pastor of Mumford Second Baptist Church, in the presence of members of both families, numerous relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. William Majors, Sr. of Buffalo, New York. She wore an off-white suit of peau de sole and a dress, a poet, a carpenter, a painter, and lastly a private in the U.S. Army.

Warren Kelso will be remembered throughout the Community by many of his boyfriends and neighbors as an interesting young man, who was constantly moving forward, searching for new ways to use his many God given talents.

As a young man he always had a desire to become a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, whereby he would be in a position to travel and see the world. Therefore in Feb. 1944 at the age of 17 he joined the U.S. Navy.

It is well to note that World War 2 was still in progress.

Warren was discharged from the Navy the following October.

Four years later Warren joined the U.S. Army using the name "Wayne Kenton" believing that by changing his name the Army would not be able to get the knowledge of his former time spent in the Navy.

Warren was assigned to the 306th Artillery Battalion, which was attached to the 2nd Infantry Division.

At the age of 25 he was reported missing in action Dec. 1, in Korea.

Three years later he was presumed dead. His body was never found. The Frederick Douglass Voice will always remember the young man known as Warren Kelso.

Time will always keep this famous LOGO, which was made by Warren, which states "The Voice of New York." The name of the original Voice Newspaper.

His father AJ (the family pronounced it "Ay") had been a railroad man for the New York Central in Rochester: An older brother AJ Jr drowned at the age of 16 in the St. Lawrence Canal.

LET US ALWAYS... REMEMBER... LIKE... FREDERICK DOUGLASS, WHO SAID... "ONE WITH GOD IS A MAJORIT..."
How? With sports and music at locations all over town, all through Rochester's Sesqui-centennial Summer. Doing more than meets the eye.
You’ll love New York. Every one of them.

From the awesome might of Niagara Falls to the serene beaches of Long Island, New York State is ten dramatically different vacation wonderlands. Send us the coupon below for free brochures that fully describe each region.

1. Chautauqua-Allegheny
   The home of Seneca Indians, black bears and wild turkeys, it's the perfect place for a quiet vacation in the great outdoors.

2. Finger Lakes
   The land of water and wine. With eleven long lakes for your swimming and sailing, and nearly two dozen vineyards for your touring and tasting.

3. Central-Leatherstocking
   History comes alive in New York’s heartland, with Cooperstown’s Baseball Hall of Fame, Howe Caverns, and the site of the Revolution’s bloodiest battle.

4. Catskills
   The picturesque peaks where Rip Van Winkle slept are now alive with the sports and entertainment of world-famous resort hotels.

5. Long Island
   Long on beaches and long on fun, with Fire Island, The Hamptons, championship golf, deep sea fishing, gourmet restaurants and lots, lots more.

6. Hudson Valley
   March into West Point or hike up the Palisades. Visit Washington Irving’s cottage and FDR’s mansion. Or cruise down the river to The Big Apple.

7. Capital-Saratoga
   Where Albany’s history and Saratoga’s horse racing meet the breathtaking countryside of Grandma Moses.

8. Adirondacks
   A “Little Switzerland” with freshwater streams and white water rapids. And a chance to watch athletes test their skills at Lake Placid’s Olympic training center.

9. Thousand Islands-Seaway
   Once a hideaway for the rich and famous, now these 1800 islands scattered along the St. Lawrence Seaway make sightseeing and fishing a serious business.

10. Niagara Frontier
    Surrounded by rural beauty and only 16 miles from Buffalo, Niagara Falls is one of the world’s greatest and most accessible natural wonders.
