Brock Announces $326 Million for 63,000 Jobs for Black, Other Workers

WASHINGTON — Black and other low income older workers will receive part-time community service jobs under a $326 million grant to eight national organizations and all state governments, including the National Urban League, National Center on Black Aged and Green Thumb, Inc., Secretary of Labor William E. Brock announced.

The grant will fund 63,000 part-time community service jobs to be operated by the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) for the program year beginning July 1.

Nearly 80 percent of SCSEP participants are over the age of 60, and about two-thirds are women. More than 30 percent are minority group members, and more than 50 percent have less than a high school education.

"This program not only benefits needy workers, but offers many benefits to communities, too," Brock stated. "About half of the people getting jobs will provide services which meet the needs of the elderly, such as health, nutrition, recreation, home care, and transportation."

SCSEP enrollees also work in schools, fire prevention programs, beautification and restoration projects, and other community programs, Brock added.

Eight national organizations received $254.3 million for 49,755 jobs. While the Labor Department provides the funding, the individual sponsors operate the program and hire the older workers.

Under the Fair Labor Standards Act youths aged 14 and 15 may work in various jobs outside school hours but no more than 9 hours on a school day with a limit of 18 hours in a school week; no more than 8 hours on a nonschool day with a limit of 40 hours in a non-school week, and not before 7 a.m. or after 7 p.m., except from June 1 through Labor day, when the evening hour is extended to 9 p.m., according to a U.S. Department of Labor fact sheet.

Under the child labor standards of the Fair Labor Standards Act, youths aged 14 and 15 may be employed in a variety of jobs including, office work; various food service jobs; Janitorial work; cashing and other work in retail stores; errand and delivery work by foot, bicycle, and public transportation; and most cleanup work.

All states have child labor laws, and when both state and federal child labor laws apply, the law setting the more stringent standard must be observed, according to a U.S. Department of Labor fact sheet.

THE MONTH OF JUNE - 1985

The month of June has been a very sad month for a number of families who have lived in this particular community for a great number of years. Therefore, at this time we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to those relatives and friends whose loved ones have passed on. Namely: Edwin L. Tyler, Rev. Lennon Register, Mrs. Katie R. Reid, Mr. Benjamin Smith, Mr. Eugene F. Singletary, Mr. Eugene F. Reid, Mr. Benjamin Smith, Mrs. Florence G. Bryant, and Dorothy Parnell.

We believe that the following poem, entitled "Eternal Life" by St. Francis of Assisi will provide a great deal of comfort to those relatives and friends. Therefore, at this time we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to those relatives and friends whose loved ones have passed on. Namely: Edwin L. Tyler, Rev. Lennon Register, Mrs. Katie R. Reid, Mr. Benjamin Smith, Mr. Eugene F. Singletary, Mr. Eugene F. Reid, Mr. Benjamin Smith, Mrs. Florence G. Bryant, and Dorothy Parnell.

Eternal Life

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace! Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; To be understood as to understand; To be loved as to love; For it is by giving... that we receive.

It is in pardoning... that we are pardoned; It is in dying... that we are born to eternal life. - by St. Francis of Assisi.

City of Rochester

News

Twelve of the twenty-six lots for the Home Exposition Program sponsored by the City of Rochester were sold during the first two days. In addition, four of the seven models have been sold. This represents over one million dollars of residential construction.

"We are very pleased with the results," stated City Councilwoman Joan M. Hensler. "Many of those who bought are first-time homeowners." The combination of a moderate price plus the 10% mortgage funds from the State of New York Mortgage Agency makes the Home Exposition Program attractive to first-time homebuyers. There are still fourteen lots remaining to be sold. The model homes are at 100, 104 and 162 Peck Street and 128, 133, 137 and 141 Bowman Street. They will be open from 3:30 to 7:30 weekdays and from 11:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, June 29th and 30th.

The summer of 1985 offers 9 one-week sessions of fun and excitement for children ages 6 to 12 at the YWCA, 175 North Clinton Avenue. "Summer Escapades" is the fitting name for this vacation program which focuses each week's activities on a special theme. Theatre Week, for example, takes children on a field trip to Bristol Valley Playhouse and will bring a dance and percussion performance by Young Audiences to the YWCA. Pets and Furry Friends Week features visits to the fish hatchery at Powder Mill Park and the Seneca Park Zoo.

"By varying field trips, games, and crafts from week to week," says Candy Leonard, Summer Escapades Director, "Summer Escapades keeps the interest of the children who are enrolled for the entire summer." Sports programs and recreational swimming are included daily in each session. Included in the nine weeks of Summer Escapades are City Week (July 2-6), Cultural Week (July 8-12), Carnival Week (July 15-19), Ecology Week (July 22-26), Holiday Week (July 28-August 2), Sports Week (August 5-9), Theatre Week (August 12-16), Country Week (August 19-23), and Pets and Furry Friends Week (August 26-30).

Children may enroll for one session or for all nine and preregistration is required a week in advance. Fees for Summer Escapades are $40.00 per week for regular hours (9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.) or $58.00 per week for working parents' hours (7:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.). For a free Summer Escapades brochure and registration form, call Candy Leonard at the YWCA, 546-2630.

DESIDERATA

O placidly amid the noise & haste, & remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.
